Dear Sir:

Responding to your card, I take pleasure in sending you, under separate cover, a copy of the latest issue of our Proceedings, which I trust will meet your need.

You ask about earlier issues e[illegible] if you mean the Numismatic Notes and Monographs, they may be obtained at the prices noted on the enclosed slip.

If you desire earlier issues of the Proceedings only, I can mail them to you although they will have little value as compared with the latest issue.

Very truly yours,

Enc.
